DEATH CALLS HENRY CLUFF

Henry Cluff, 89, a pioneer of 1850 and a former resident of this valley, died at his home in Provo on the morning of January 16th.

Mr. Cluff was born Feb. 15, 1843, in Nauvoo, Hancock County, Illinois, the son of David and Betsy Hall Cluff.

He came to Utah with his parents in 1850, settling in what is known as the old Fort of Provo. In 1878 he and the family came to Wasatch and lived north of Heber, on the old Cluff ranch.

While residing here he acted as presiding Elder and later as Bishop until 1920. On November 8, 1892, he was elected Justice of the Peace in Wasatch County, and in 1900 was elected County Commissioner on the Democratic ticket.

He moved back to Provo in 1902, where he has since resided. He took part in the first dramatic association organized in Provo and was a member of the Provo choir under the leadership of James E. Daniels. He was a veteran of the Black Hawk Indian war and in his early days he spent two years transporting immigrants from Missouri to Utah, at the request of President Brigham Young.

He was employed by the Union Pacific railroad company when it first came to Utah in 1862. He aided in building the first log fort at Provo and also helped to build a 12 foot cobble rock wall around the block between University Ave. and First East, and Center and 1st North Streets. The wall was built for protection of the settlers when it was announced that Jackson's army was coming to Utah.

Mr. Cluff always took an active part in the L. D. S. Church and in the civic affairs of the community, and held the office at the time of his death. His wife, Kezia Russell Cluff, died January 16, 1915. Surviving are five sons, Henry R. Cluff of Heber, Charles and Wm. D. Cluff of Provo; H. Fred Cluff, Salt Lake; John R. Cluff of Driggs, Idaho; four daughters, Mrs. Ada L. Moulton of Springville, Mrs. Lillie May Hardman of Woodland, Mrs. J. H. McDonald of Provo and Mrs. Nellie Woolstenhulme of Victor, Idaho; also two brothers: Orson Cluff of Mesa, Arizona and Jerry Cluff of Provo, together with 50 grandchildren and 66 great grandchildren.

Funeral services were held in the Provo fifth ward chapel last Sunday, many people from here attending. Interment was in the Provo City cemetery.
